Emmanuel Lutheran School Pledge

We view our relationship with you and your child(ren) as a partnership. Working together we strive to help each child develop his or her potential mentally, physically, and spiritually. As with any partnership, to be successful, it requires that we each fulfill our respective roles and responsibilities.

Therefore we pledge with God's help to:

- * Provide quality and caring Christian teachers and support staff;
- * Provide and maintain facilities necessary for the instruction of your child(ren);
- * Provide a Christian environment, curriculum, and policies through which each student can grow mentally, physically, and spiritually;
- * Provide the funds necessary to operate Emmanuel Lutheran School;
- * Encourage you as parents to be faithful in following the guidelines listed below.

Because Christian education includes the teaching a child receives at school, church, and most importantly, at home, we encourage you to fulfill the following responsibilities:

- * Strive to establish and maintain a good Christian home;
- * Make regular devotions a part of your home life;
- * Attend worship and Bible study with your child(ren) on a regular basis and be an active member of church life;
- * Support school programs and events through your family's attendance;
- * Pray regularly for God's guidance to aid our school and us in His Kingdom's work;
- * Pay all fees and tuition by the 15th of the month in full.
- * Attend meetings and conferences to discuss your child's progress.

Together, we can fulfill our philosophy to "Teach children to read, learn, live, and grow into the fullness of Christ." Please sign below to indicate your willingness to do everything within your power and with God's help to make this partnership work.
